Dummy Employee Handbook & Policy Knowledge Base

Purpose: A single consolidated fictional document for testing RAG ingestion, chunking, embeddings, vector search, retrieval, and question answering.

Important: This dataset is fictional and is not legal, employment, insurance, or financial advice.

1. Employee Handbook

Company Overview

Acme Digital Solutions is a fictional technology company with offices in Dhaka and remote employees. The company values professionalism, collaboration, learning, inclusion, privacy, and responsible use of company resources.

Working Hours

Standard working hours are 9:00 AM to 6:00 PM, Sunday through Thursday, with a one-hour lunch break. Teams may use different schedules when approved by their manager.

Probation

New employees normally complete a six-month probation period. During probation, performance, attendance, conduct, and role fit are reviewed.

Performance Reviews

Employees receive a formal performance review twice per year. Reviews consider goals, quality of work, teamwork, communication, reliability, and professional development.

Confidentiality

Employees must protect confidential company information, customer information, credentials, source code, financial information, and internal documents. Confidential information must not be shared with unauthorized people.

2. Leave Policy

Annual Leave

Full-time employees receive 18 paid annual leave days per calendar year. Leave should normally be requested at least five working days in advance.

Sick Leave

Employees may take up to 10 paid sick days per calendar year. A medical certificate may be requested for absences longer than three consecutive working days.

Emergency Leave

Employees may request up to 3 paid emergency leave days per calendar year for unexpected personal or family situations.

Leave Approval

Employees submit leave requests through the HR portal. The direct manager approves or rejects requests based on operational requirements.

Unused Leave

Up to 5 unused annual leave days may be carried into the following calendar year. Carried leave must be used by March 31 unless HR grants an exception.

3. Remote Work Policy

Eligibility

Employees whose roles can be performed remotely may work from home for up to three days per week with manager approval.

Availability

Remote employees must remain reachable during core hours from 10:00 AM to 4:00 PM.

Equipment

The company may provide a laptop, monitor, headset, and other approved equipment. Company equipment must be used primarily for business purposes and protected from unauthorized access.

Security

Employees working remotely must use approved authentication methods, keep operating systems updated, avoid public unsecured Wi-Fi when handling sensitive information, and lock devices when unattended.

Office Attendance

Managers may require employees to attend the office for team meetings, training, client activities, or other business needs with reasonable notice.

4. Salary Policy

Salary Structure

Employee compensation may include base salary, approved allowances, bonuses, and other benefits specified in the employment agreement.

Payroll Date

Monthly salary is normally paid on the last working day of each month.

Salary Review

Salary reviews are generally conducted once per year and may consider performance, role scope, market conditions, internal equity, and company budget.

Overtime

Overtime must be approved in advance by the employee's manager. Eligibility and compensation depend on the employment agreement and applicable law.

Payslips

Employees receive an electronic payslip showing gross salary, applicable deductions, and net salary.

5. Insurance Policy

Health Coverage

Eligible full-time employees may receive company-sponsored health insurance according to the plan selected by the company.

Dependents

Eligible employees may add approved dependents where the insurance plan permits. Any employee contribution for dependent coverage will be communicated by HR.

Claims

Employees should submit insurance claims using the insurer's required forms and supporting documents. HR can assist with general administrative questions.

Exclusions

Coverage is subject to the insurance provider's terms, limits, exclusions, waiting periods, and eligibility requirements. This handbook does not replace the official insurance contract.

Enrollment

New eligible employees should complete enrollment within 30 days of joining unless the insurer specifies a different enrollment period.

6. Code of Conduct

Professional Behavior

Employees are expected to treat colleagues, customers, vendors, and visitors with respect and professionalism.

Harassment and Discrimination

Harassment, bullying, intimidation, and unlawful discrimination are prohibited. Concerns should be reported to HR or an appropriate manager.

Conflicts of Interest

Employees must disclose situations where personal interests could interfere with professional responsibilities, including certain outside business relationships or financial interests.

Gifts and Hospitality

Employees must not accept gifts or hospitality that could improperly influence business decisions. Low-value customary business gifts may be accepted when consistent with company rules.

Company Property

Company devices, accounts, software licenses, data, and facilities must be used responsibly and protected against loss, theft, or unauthorized access.

Information Security

Employees must not share passwords, bypass security controls, install unauthorized software on company systems, or disclose restricted information.

Social Media

Employees may use social media in their personal capacity but must not disclose confidential information or falsely represent personal views as official company statements.

Reporting Violations

Employees can report suspected policy violations to HR, their manager, or an authorized compliance contact. Reports should be made in good faith.

Disciplinary Action

Policy violations may result in coaching, written warnings, suspension, termination, or other action depending on the circumstances and applicable law.
